

BOYS FROM ARGENTINA
HERE TO GO TO SCHOOL

Seventeen Sent by Their Country to Take Scientific and Farming Courses.

Sent by their government to study in American colleges seventeen young men from Argentina have arrived in New York. They represent some of the most prominent families of that republic. The young men are expected to come to Washington to be present during the inauguration.

Senor Zavalla, the Argentine representative, is arranging to receive his countrymen, and it is probable that an entertainment will be given in their honor.

The young men are sent to this country by the minister of public instruction. They will be entered in scientific and agricultural schools.
